Division	Order	Parade Unit	Description
10	1004	Mount Purrnon Cat Cafe and Wine Bar	Mount Purrnon is Virginia's first cat cafe and wine bar, providing a home for rescue cats to live the good life cage-free until they are adopted. Guests can visit, adopt, and enjoy food and drink.
11	1100	Coalition to Stop the Potomac Yard Arena	The Coalition honors three members of the community who have made a significant difference as civic activists and city employees: former Councilwomen and environmentalist Ellen Pickering, who fought the City to preserve public access to the Potomac along the waterfront; Katy Cannady (who still lives in Alexandria and has been a long-time activist who along with former Mayor Patsy Ticer opposed the 1992 Redskins football stadium), and former City naturalist Rod Simmons who spent the last 27 years advocating for the preservation and protection of the city's biodiversity. Coalition of citizens opposed to the proposed sports arena in Potomac Yard joins with Don't Mute DC to voice their concerns over the project
11	1101	DASH 60-foot articulated electric bus	As part of DASH's commitment to supporting the City of Alexandria's Eco-City initiative, DASH is moving toward operating a 100% electric fleet, which includes this 60-foot articulated electric bus.
